

The University Community Planning Group (UCPG) is the officially recognized organization representing North and South University City in the City of San Diego's planning process. There is no cost to be a general member. Memberships do not expire, but members must have current address information on file with the Membership Secretary. Members are eligible to vote for and be elected to the Executive Committee. UCPG meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month beginning at 6:00 p.m. in Forum Hall (above Wells Fargo Bank) in the University Towne Centre shopping center.
